Oxford County United Parish

On Thursday, Nov. 3rd, the annual meeting of the Parish Council will be held at South Waterford. This is the giving of the reports of the work carried on during the past year. This meeting marks the end of sixteen years of splendid cooperation between all the churches in the parish. Mrs. Joseph Moulton will be the speaker at the afternoon session of the Council. She has spent several years with her husband in India and has some interesting stories and experiences to tell.

Twenty-nine people from the churches of the Parish attended the meeting of the Association of Congregational and Christian Churches at Denmark last week. All had a fine day, the meeting being unusually large one.

Eleven men from the Parish attended the meeting of the Congregational Men's Club at South Paris last Thursday evening and enjoyed some fine speeches as well as a good supper.

On Friday evening, November 4th, the young people at East Storcham will have their annual social evening to be held at the church vestry.

The Parish School entertained the public school teachers employed in the town of the parish, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bull, in East Storcham, on Wednesday evening.

Charles A. Towle, superintendent of the Norway Turning Company, has moved his family into the house of Mrs. Maude Bolster.

Rev. Christian Groezinger left town this week for Presque Isle, where he will visit his former parishioners for a time before going to Boston.

A state convention of Oxford County Arch Chapter, No. 29, will be held Wednesday evening, Nov. 9, at 7:30 p. m. Installation of officers.

Miss Ruth Libby, R. N., visited her mother the first of the week, coming from the State College at Durham, N. H., where she has a position in the infirmary.

Twins, a girl and a boy, were born Tuesday, to Mr. and Mrs. Burton Bennett, at the home of William Card, Water street. Both mother and the babies are doing well.

Mrs. Myrtle Harding has returned from South Harspess, where she has been at her summer home for the season, and is with her daughter, Mrs. Robert B. Dow, for the present.

The Twin Town Nature Club will meet with Miss Julia P. Morton, South Paris, Monday evening, November 7. Roll call, Seasonal Quotations; Program, "Ereast Seton Thompson."

Mrs. Alfreda has returned from Brockton, Mass., where she has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Thompson, who brought her home this week and are remaining for a few days.

Claud Snow has moved from the Max Block on Whittam Street to the downstairs room in the Bazaar, near the Bridge St., next to the Advertiser Office, where he has opened up his barber shop.

Mrs. Wm. C. Leavitt of Orchard Street is visiting her sisters in Massachusetts.

Mrs. A. C. Whittemore of Ashland, Mass., will return to Norway in season to vote.

F. W. Sanborn, Walter C. Smith, Mrs. Cora E. Twichell, Miss Elsie A. Favor and Mrs. John A. Woodman went to the Center, N. H., Sunday, and took dinner with Mr. Sanborn's sister, Mrs. C. E. Osgood.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris L. Bartlett of Clayton Lake have been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Albert Norway the last of the week.

Edward G. Robinson, the movie actor, and his wife will be well fed up on oil and garlic and have the lively society of the Spanish flies, who are of an especially vigorous breed. The campaign drags on with neither side making any points worth considering. The whole thing is a bit of a farce.

Dear Sir: Most people seem to think that Socialism and Communism are one and the same. There is a fundamental difference which I would like to explain through the medium of your paper.

Both Socialists and Communists believe in the use of force to bring about a change in the ownership of property.

(1) In the case of Socialism, the change is to be brought about by the use of force.

(2) In the case of Communism, the change is to be brought about by the use of force.

MEN'S CLUB WENT INTO ACTION

Seventy-eight men attended the first meeting for the season of the Congregational Men's Club in the vestry, Tuesday evening.

Supper was served by the ladies at 6:30 with table appointments, appreciation to Hallowell. The club orchestra comprising Howard Shaw, piano; Kenneth Wilson, violin; Clarence Hunt, trumpet; and James Mason, trombone, played during the supper and for the singing which followed.

Rev. W. I. Bull of Waterville was leader of the song fest.

Frank Goldsmith, president of the club, was in charge of the program, which opened with the election of Dr. Carl Clifford as secretary and treasurer to succeed Merion K. Clifford, who resigned.

Rev. R. H. Colby put the crowd in good humor and expressed his appreciation of the response to the meeting. He pointed out the house and found guests from Norway, Stonewall, Albany and Waterville, who were called to their feet and applauded. The orchestra received a good hand for their work.

Rev. Joseph L. Moulton was the first speaker and he told a lot about India. He is a missionary there and is spending a furlough at his home in Clifton at Bates College. It was the pleasant duty of our postmaster to introduce his friend. The speaker explained many of the American conditions in India and said that it is a missionary's duty to help in the progress of the country. He said, "India is not a curse of the country, India is not a curse for hardly a nationally important thing happens in the United States that is not brooded throughout the realm. They look to us for leadership, he said."

Rev. George N. White, D. D., of Chicago, secretary of the American Missionary Society, told some of the things he had done to improve the condition of the negro and Indians in the South and West. His subject, "Dividends Preferred," emphasized outstanding achievements of individuals who made their mark in missionary schools and colleges. "India is not alone in the caste system," he said.

"There are states where the color line is sharply drawn and social contacts are not allowed," he said. "India is not alone in the caste system and has an intimate knowledge of conditions that do not exist in the northern states."

H. A. Sawyer, the jeweler has moved his family from South Portland and is located in the Schoff house. His daughter, aged fourteen, has entered the high school.

J. W. Beverly attended the wedding of his niece, Miss Phyllis Beverly and Paul Buckman Duley, Hempstead Harbor, Long Island, N. Y., at Waterville, Mass. J. W. Beverly gave his niece in marriage.

There was a large crowd at Locke's Mills Pavilion on Saturday night. Hallowell prize went to Mrs. Eldridge and Miss Connors, Bethel prize to Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Curtis. In the evening, prizes were given to Miss Curtis and Miss Whitman, West Paris. Hard times prizes to Mrs. Lawrence Lord, Bethel, and Mr. Rowe of Bethel. Thanks given to the donors of the prizes.

Mrs. Eunice Barrows has returned from Bar Mills, where she spent a few weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Milton McAllister.

George R. Morton, Harry A. Morton, Clarence G. Morton, Ernest Crockett and Miss Julia P. Morton attended the funeral services of their cousin, Dr. Morton W. Bossey, a prominent physician and former biology instructor at Colby College, at Waterville, Saturday.

Mrs. Merton Clifford entertained her class of the Congregational Sunday School at her home, Saturday afternoon. There were Hallowell decorations and stunts and appropriate refreshments.

The Congregational Church was organized November 4, 1848 and will celebrate the 125th anniversary next Sunday. In the morning, Rev. R. H. Colby's sermon will be "The Church—Then and Now." Communion will follow. In the evening, at 7 o'clock, addresses will be delivered by the pastor on "The History of this Church," and Rev. R. W. Roundy's subject will be "The Contribution of Maine Congregationalism." Special music at both services.

The Aowaki Camp Fire Girls had a banquet for the senior and junior Vesperettes at the home of Mrs. M. H. Merrill, 1st Church, Thursday evening. Miss Caroline Farnham was toastmistress. Mrs. Mildred Cole, guardian of the Aowaki group, gave a talk. Miss Helen Merrill gave a toast to the three ranks of Camp Fire. Miss Barbara Colby, a toast to Campfire; Miss Cheryl Eastman, to the guardians. Miss Marguerite Shaw read "Let's Aim," written by her mother, Mrs. Howard Shaw. Miss Jeannette Goldsmith sang a solo.

O. K. Clifford recently visited his brother, Herman W. Clifford, in Worcester, and Henry Clifford, in White, Mass.

Rev. Andrew P. McWhorter of Augusta preached at the Congregational Church, Sunday morning, in exchange with Rev. Rensel H. Colby. In the evening, Mr. Colby conducted the service and spoke on "Theology of the Institution."

Mrs. Bertha S. Abbott has been appointed by the new Department Commander of the Legion, Wright Gleaves, of Bar Harbor, to serve on the child welfare committee of the American Legion for the coming year. This is one of the Legion's most important committees, as all cases receiving aid must be investigated by this department. Mrs. Abbott is also now entering upon her duties as department treasurer of the Auxiliary and Demi-Chapman of the 4-10.

Dr. W. E. Raymond was home from Boston for the week end, recently, and returned to his medical course the following Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Noyes have returned to their home after working away through the summer and fall.

Lucy Brown's birthday was pleasantly celebrated the 30th of October at the home of her mother, Jennie Cummings. Flora Cummings being the invited dinner guest and though depression is felt as elsewhere no one who knows Jennie's cooking knows full well "Lucy's" was a tasty dinner well served. Lucy had cards and gifts presented, showing the warm place she holds in many hearts. In the afternoon a group of young people gathered and sang songs. Joseph Cummings, who has been stopping in Greenwood was at his home here, Monday.

BRYANT POND

Mr. and Mrs. Mel Phillips of Berlin, N. H., were week end guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Farnum.

Mrs. E. J. Thompson remains about the same at the home of her daughter in New Hampshire.

Mrs. Lottie Hemmingway is gaining slowly. The teachers of the grade school went to Bangor to the teachers' convention held there last week. Everett Cole, Misses Alice Milton and Melva Greely were the teachers. Miss Evelyn Howe accompanied them and visited her sister, Miss Inez Howe, a student at the University of Maine.

Guy Swan is working for Fritz Tyler at Bethel.

Clinton Buck and family were in Lewiston, Saturday to see his brother, George Buck who has been there a long time since his operation for appendicitis.

A drama, "The Yellow Shadow", a mystery drama, was given by the senior class of Woodstock high school at the Grange Hall, Friday evening, Oct. 28, to a very large attendance. It was a very nice drama and well played. Cast of characters as follows:

Neil Travis, housekeeper at Viewcrest.
Jennie Norton, Gilbert Wright, Attorney for the late Maxine.
Alice Perkins, Mildred's cousin.
Eva Billings, Mildred's cousin.
Maxwell Marvin, her uncle, including Viewcrest.
Harriet Swift, Mildred's cousin.
Robby Day, Mildred's cousin.
Albert Brooks, Sheriff Macklin, he has taken a "detective" course.
Ellen Hathaway, Mildred's cousin.
Gordon Chase, the coroner.
Mildred's cousin.
Wong Song, his past is unknown.
Refreshments of ice cream and cake were on sale. Dancing was enjoyed after the drama, with music by the Grange orchestra, Ellis Davis, Everett Howe, Edwin Perkins, Floyd Reisman, Henry Stone and Mrs. Harriet Farrington.
